

Each detail that you write needs to be explained. In your own words, give your reader some examples that explain each detail. This will help your reader better understand what you are trying to say.

Topic Sent. 1: Prejudice is harmful because of racism.

Detail 1: The events that happened in 1931 to the Scottsboro Boys are examples of racial prejudice.

Explanation: Nine African-American males were on a train when two white women falsely accused them of assault. When it went to trial, no proof was provided showing that the men assaulted to two women. Despite this, eight of the nine men were sentenced to death. The men were guilty until proven innocent because of their race.

Now, try one on your own.
