Literary Elements

After learning about article writing, you are now expected to use all of your knowledge to write an article with 2 partners! You will be writing an article for a debate column in a newspaper. There will be a pro and con side for each topic. You will start by making a group of 6. From that group of 6, you will split into two groups of 3. You will then pick one topic below for your debate.

Topics

- 1) Should the time students spend in school each day be extended?
- 2) Should students be required to wear uniforms?
- 3) Are single-gender classrooms beneficial?
- 4) Should homework be abolished?
- 5) Should student expression be restricted?
- 6) Should the minimum driving age be raised?
- 7) Are online classes as beneficial as face-to-face instruction in a traditional classroom?
- 8) Should schools use surveillance technologies?
- 9) Should student newspapers enjoy the same freedom of the press as professional publications?
- 10) Should students be paid for good grades?
- 11) Should student-athletes in college be compensated?
- 12) Create your own topic similar to these topics. It must be approved.
